While the Euro & Pound are so near parity, take advantage of the great value of a stay in Dover the cost of shopping has never been cheaper.

WHERE TO STAY AND AND OTHER USEFUL INFORMATION.

The Hotels & Guest Houses, whose websites are given here, are Inspected and Graded, so that you can rest assured that where ever you stay, you'll always receive a warm welcome, a clean and comfortable room(s) and lots of local knowledge. Two sites worth looking at for local good quality accommodation, are:

www.doveraccommodation.co.uk and www.stayindover.co.uk

Further information on Dover and the rest of White-Cliffs Country can be found on the tourism Web-site:
www.whitecliffscountry.org.uk

Dover has a wealth of history, all the sites are well worth visiting; also some very good restaurants as shown in this leaflet. There are beautiful cliff-top walks and wonderful countryside with amazing views across to France. There's also good pubs to refresh you after your walk - at St. Margaret's at Cliffe & Bay (please see the following website for information on various aspects of St. Margaret's - as well as in Dover).

www.firstlightcoast.com

Also of interest may be information on walking - here's the Northdowns Way web-site:
www.northdownsway.co.uk

We have some great independent shops here, some will gift-wrap your purchases; there's also National Stores like Marks & Spencers and Boots. We hope you enjoy your stay in Dover, whether just for the day, overnight, or for a few days.
