

DOVER

There are many events through the summer to make Dover the place to visit: race-days, beer festival, WW1 weekends, Regatta, Carnival, Music in the Park and of course Bleriot Celebrations in July. Dover Castle events.

The Magnificent Dover Castle

Bleriot Celebrations

While the Euro & Pound are so near parity, take advantage of the great value of a stay in Dover the cost of shopping has never been cheaper.

WHERE TO STAY AND AND OTHER USEFUL INFORMATION.

The Hotels & Guest Houses, whose websites are given here, are Inspected and Graded, so that you can rest assured that where ever you stay, you'll always receive a warm welcome, a clean and comfortable room(s) and lots of local knowledge. Two sites worth looking at for local good quality accommodation, are:

www.doveraccommodation.co.uk and
www.stayindover.co.uk

Further information on Dover and the rest of White-Cliffs Country can be found on the tourism Web-site:
www.whitecliffscountry.org.uk

Dover has a wealth of history, all the sites are well worth visiting; also some very good restaurants as shown in this leaflet. There are beautiful cliff-top walks and wonderful countryside with amazing views across to France. There's also good pubs to refresh you after your walk - at St. Margaret's at Cliffe & Bay (please see the following website for information on various aspects of St. Margaret's - as well as in Dover).

www.firstlightcoast.com

Also of interest may be information on walking - here's the Northdowns Way web-site:
www.northdownsway.co.uk

We have some great independent shops here, some will gift-wrap your purchases; there's also National Stores like Marks & Spencers and Boots. We hope you enjoy your stay in Dover, whether just for the day, overnight, or for a few days.

COME BACK SOON !

Are proud to sponsor Discover Dover
Email: mail@doverchamber.co.uk
Website: www.doverchamber.co.uk

LD Lines

Sail from Boulogne to Dover in just one hour via LD Lines' new fast ferry service on the new "Norman Arrow" - the largest ever fast-ferry to operate on the channel routes between France and England.

Offering real value-for-money, you can enjoy a day visit or short-break stay in Dover and experience the Town's history, pubs, shops, cafes, quality restaurants and accommodation.

Day excursion fares start from 35 euros for a car and four passengers; short-break stays from 40 euros; 5 day returns from 62.50 euros and for foot passengers, from 22.50 euros (day return). All fares depend on time and date of departure and are subject to alteration.

Norman Arrow carries all tourist traffic: cars, coaches caravans, motorhomes, motorcycles & foot passengers (on selected sailings) and provides up to four return sailings daily:

From Boulogne: 0700 - Monday-Friday (0900 -Saturday/Sunday), 1045 ; 1700 ; 2230.

From Dover: 0415 ; 0745 ; 1230 ; 1900

Foot passengers are accommodated on the following fast ferry services only (all times local). Monday-Friday

From Boulogne: Dover - 0700 ; 1700 ;

From Dover: Boulogne - 0745 ; 1900

Saturday & Sunday.

From Boulogne: Dover 0900 ; 1700 ;

From Dover: Boulogne : 0745 ; 1900

LD Lines also operates a conventional ferry service on the Boulogne-Dover and Dieppe-Dover routes.

Crossing time Boulogne - Dover is 1 hour 45 minutes with two return sailings daily. Dieppe-Dover, one return sailing daily with a crossing time of 4 hours 15 mins.

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND TO BOOK :

www.ldlines.com / www.transmancheferries.com

or call : 0844 576 8836 or www.LDLines.com

LD Lines ferry route network includes Le Havre-Portsmouth, Dieppe-Newhaven and Le Havre-Rosslare (Southern Ireland) in addition to Boulogne-Dover and Dieppe-Dover.

Discover DOVER 2009

YOUR GUIDE TO WHAT'S BEST FOR SHOPPING, DINING, DRINKING, SITE-SEEING & RELAXING, HERE IN DOVER

©NTPL

When you're crossing the Channel, always use

LD Lines

See back page for details

designed and printed by

R.K. GRAPHICS

www.rkgraphics.co.uk

The White Cliffs of Dover are internationally famous as an Icon of Britain. The Visitor Centre offers spectacular views, information, a light lunch, afternoon tea, or a browse in the shop. Much of the chalk - downland, is a Site of Special Scientific Interest. You can also make the walk across to the South Foreland Lighthouse.

©NTPL/Stuart Chorley

Upper Rd. Dover. Tel. 01304 202756
www.nationaltrust.org.uk/whitecliffs

Dover Castle Travel deep into the White Cliffs and take a tour through the maze of secret underground tunnels where Vice Admiral Ramsay masterminded the evacuation of Dunkirk. From August 2009 immerse yourself in the medieval world of King Henry II with the exciting representation of the Great Tower.

©Phil Medgett

Castle Hill Rd. Dover. Tel.01304 211067
www.english-heritage.org.uk/dovercastle

Crabble Corn Mill Built in 1812 to feed the troops defending the Kent Coast against invasion by Napoleon. There's been a mill on this site since at least 1227. You can enjoy lunch or cream-tea in our river-side tea-room, take a guided tour by a miller and see the Mill working.

©Phil Medgett

Lower Road, River, Dover. CT17 0UY Tel. 08701453857
www.ccmt.org.uk

The Allotment is founded on the principles of home-cooked, good, simple food, sourcing local produce wherever possible.

We serve breakfast, lunch and dinner;
 lunch & dinner menus change regularly:
 see our specials-board for the daily selections.

Quality wines are available, by the glass or bottle.

Great coffee is served throughout the day, with a selection of home-made cakes available all day.

Our courtyard garden offers a welcome, quiet retreat, from the busy High Street.

Open Tuesday to Saturday, 08.30am to 11.00pm
 serving breakfast, lunch & dinner, with bookings preferred.

To reserve a table for lunch or dinner,

Call 01304 214467 Euros and C/C accepted.

9 High Street, Dover CT16 1DP

www.theallotmentdover.com

The 4 Start Ramada Hotel in Dover is the natural choice for an enjoyable stay in Dover, offering well appointed rooms, Bleriot's Restaurant with its International cuisine, a Costa Coffee lounge, mini gym and the Europa lounge bar. Car-parking is Free and there is Free WiFi Internet access throughout the hotel.

Euros & C/C are accepted and an ATM machine is available.

Singledge Lane, Whitfield, Dover, Kent CT16 3EL

Tel. + 44 (0) 1304 821230.

Email: reservations@ramadadover.co.uk www.ramadadover.co.uk

Dover Transport Museum has all types of road vehicles: motorcycles, bicycles, cars, vans & buses. Model Rail & Tramway. Local transport history. 100's of models. Bygone shops & garage. Some exhibits under restoration; discover cars your Dad used to drive.

Willington Rd. Whitfield, Dover. Tel. 01304 822409
dovertransportmuseum.homestead.com

The Roman Painted House discovered in 1970, is an exceptionally well preserved Roman official Hotel (Mansio) with some extensive intact wall paintings & elaborate under-floor heating (hypocaust). Substantial remains of Roman Fort wall and bastion, all are within a modern covered building.

New Street. Dover. Tel 01304 202379
cka.moon-demon.co.uk/painted.htm

Dover Muesum/Bronze-Age Boat is Dover's largest museum, having fascinating real objects, models & original pictures showing Dover's history. Included, is entry to the award-winning 3,600 year old Bronze-Age Boat Gallery.

Market Square, Dover. Tel 01304 201066
www.dovermuseum.co.uk